AN INTRODUCTION TO RICHIE MARSDEN

Through visiting and learning from some of the best minds and research pioneering coaches, Richie has developed a great depth of knowledge, which he shares and uses to help students find the best way to improve their game. From detailed and accurate analysis of the players game and their techniques, Richie can input and develop a plan of continuous improvement, with short and long term goals for a positive and enjoyable experience in playing the game and in practice.

"Talent is only a head start, remember you can always out work them"

ONE TO ONE

In conjunction with the very latest in coaching technology, game improvement aids and marquee coaching facilities at Formby Hall, individual lessons can be taken as a simple "one off" session that covers a very specific department through to an organized improvement plan over a series of lessons allowing you to build all areas of your game and reach your personal target.

Long and short game, Course Management and Complete game analysis sessions available.

"No matter how good you get you can always get better and that's the exciting part"

GROUP SESSIONS

Group sessions are a great way to progress your game, from beginner programmes to advanced training sessions, a group environment can provide a greater learning experience and at a reduced cost. They're fun and informative, you can come as a group, a couple, or on your own, sharing your experiences as you progress through the course of sessions.

- Mission 4 Golf; Junior Development Program
- Give Golf A Go! Adults Beginner and Learning course

Pick up a leaflet on specific group programmes you maybe interested in, or register your interest at the golf shop for further details.

GOLF SCHOOLS

With the luxury of continuous coaching over a minimum of half a day, golf schools offer you a great opportunity to make immediate improvement in various aspects of the game, with quality and effective practice at the heart of the sessions. Different schools are arranged to cover all aspects from a very specific half day short game experience through to one and two day events covering full swing, short game and complete game analysis.
